

Sample Course Description

Faculty: Economy

Study program: Bachelor Tourism

Course Title: Italian language

Course Credits: 4 credits

Language of Instruction: Italian

Course Description: The objective of the course is to develop the learner's language skills in the Italian language so that they can express and understand everyday sentences and expressions connected with fields of necessary needs especially in Tourism, The learner can communicate for homework, to describe in simple terms the aspects of the formation. The course can increase the students' interest in knowledge about the culture of both countries.

Course Goals: Learners must deepen and enrich the basic language competence to acquire the oral or written communication skills specified for the A1 A2 level.

Course Requirements: Attending 75% of seminars.

Grading: The final grade is composed by:

participation in seminars 5 points activation in seminars 10 points control test 1 20 points

the final exam 65 points

Course Schedule: The course has 40 seminars during 20 weeks, 2 hours every week

Literature : This subject takes place on the basis of the book: Espresso Italiano per te, Luciana Zigilio; Giovanna Rizzo.

Espresso Italiano per te is an Italian language course for foreigners divided into three levels (A1, A2 and B1) in line with the indications of the Common European Framework for Languages. It is based on modern and innovative methodological principles, thanks to which the student is able to communicate immediately with ease and safety