

Sample Course Description

Faculty: Faculty of Foreign Languages

Study program: Bachelor in French language

Course Title: French language for specific purposes

Course Credits: 7

Language of Instruction: French

Course Description: This course aims to provide students with the basic knowledge about French for specific purposes, French for professional communication, business, tourism. Among other things, it is a discipline that best interweaves linguistic knowledge with professional knowledge. The student will face daily situations of oral or written professional communication. He/she will know and understand cultural, social and administrative realities of the francophone world of business, tourism, hotel industry, gastronomy and beyond.

Course Goals:

This course will allow the student

- to approach the linguistic and cultural aspects of professional life in field of tourism and business through communication situations;
- to acquire a specific vocabulary for the field of French on specific objectives;
- to enrich and improve professional communicative skills through the presentation of numerous written and oral documents;
- react correctly in French, in writing and orally, in different situations;
- to master written and oral translation techniques in foreign languages for specific purposes;
- develop strategies for working independently or in groups to carry out concrete tasks through various activities.

Course Requirements:

Attendance: Lectures and seminars 75%

Assessment: Attendance 10%, continuous assessment 20%, final exam 70%

Grading: The lowest grade is 5 and the highest grade is 10.

46-55 points	5
56-65 points	6
66-75 points	7
76-85 points	8
86-95 points	9
96-100 points	10

Course Schedule: Semester IV, 30 lectures and 30 seminars